

Corporate Finance

Today's capital markets and financial products are more complex than ever. As your business grows, our attorneys are here to help you avoid the risks and pursue the advantages provided by both traditional and new financing structures and products.

It is more critical than ever for businesses to make wise investments that provide maximum return on capital and minimal risk in the rapidly evolving market. Whether these goals are achieved through a sale, a restructuring, or a recapitalization, businesses require legal counsel to help make complex deals happen. The attorneys at Kane Russell Coleman Logan stay abreast of the complex laws governing corporate finance and possess valuable insight gained over decades of representing top businesses, enabling the firm to help our clients manage their future. Our attorneys regularly advise clients on the full range of public and private financings, including:

- Asset-based financings
- Bridge loans
- Corporate credit facilities
- Distressed debt investing
- Letter of credit facilities
- Leveraged acquisition and recapitalization financings
- Mezzanine debt financings
- Private placements
- Senior secured credit facilities
- Venture debt financing
- Workouts and restructurings

Our attorneys' diverse experience and skills allow us to handle the broadest possible range of even the most sophisticated transactions in this dynamic marketplace.
