Demetri Economou has over a decade of high-stakes oil and gas experience and currently co-chairs KRCL's Energy, Oil & Gas Practice Group. Demetri is regularly on the front lines of disputes, both before and during litigation, and is a certified mediator.

With over 12 years advising general counsel and business leaders in the energy industry, Demetri brings the experience and resolve necessary to meet any legal challenge. He provides trusted advice to KRCL's upstream, midstream and oilfield services clients, including in high-dollar royalty litigation and cases involving lease and deed interpretation, surface use, midstream and services contracts, and oilfield trade secrets, including both trial and appellate work. Demetri and the KRCL energy team regularly speak on cutting-edge energy law issues throughout Texas.

Demetri is also a founding member of the Energy Mediation Center, which specializes in alternative dispute resolution for the energy industry. There, he focuses on "Mediation 2.0": a faster, business-forward alternative to traditional mediation.

He has been selected to the Super Lawyers Rising Stars list for the past seven years, 2017-2023.
