Joitza represents and advises clients in various real estate-based transactions, including acquisitions, leasing, development, and financing. Her practice also includes representing buyers and sellers in mergers and acquisitions as well as general business legal matters for closely held entities.

Joitza has been involved in structuring and documenting a wide variety of business transactions across different industries and her background in intellectual property further assist her in bringing additional value to her clients when additional complexities of licensing and other IP matters in corporate transactions arise.

She received her J.D. from South Texas College of Law with Honors (Cum Laude), where she served as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of International Economic Law and President of the Intellectual Property & Technology Law Society. She received her Certificate in Transactional Law Practice and was awarded the Dean's Spirit Award.

Away from the Office

Joitza loves spending time with her fiancé, and her family, as well as traveling, jogging and horseback riding. She also speaks several languages, including Spanish, Dutch, Papiamentu, and Farsi.
