

How Bankruptcy Affects Franchise Agreements

Franchise, Intellectual Property / October 8, 2014

Few assets in the hospitality industry are more valuable and important than the franchise agreements. The bankruptcy filing of a franchisor or a franchisee can greatly increase the uncertainty of how and when the provisions of a franchise agreement will be enforced. To learn more, click on the link below to an article recently published by the online news site Hotel News Now:

<http://www.hotelnewsnow.com/Article/14427>